Creativity refers to generating new and novel ideas. Innovation refers to the application of an idea and, in many cases, is a collaborative enterprise. So in other words, innovation is applied creativity. Or if I put my creative speaker hat on, I might say, "Creativity is a bioelectrical thunderstorm that precipitates an inescapable notion."

Organization during the creative process. That is, creativity is a precursor for innovation since creativity is what generates ideas that are innovated upon. 2 That would suggest a linear relationship. But the literature also speaks to a virtuous cycle between the two that would seem obvious to most people: the implementation of an initial creative concept (the innovation) also sparks a new round of ...
