This is the exciting conclusion to the bestselling book My Story of America.

Church today is nothing like it was when I was growing up in Baton Rouge and New Orleans, Louisiana, during the 70s and 80s; and I understand that as times change, things change. One of the biggest changes that the church has gone through is the lack of commitment to its given mandate and ministries. There are so many distractions today that people tend to work God into their personal schedules, instead of working their schedules around God and His ministry. This book addresses the challenges and issues of the seven churches of Asia Minor in Revelation Chapters 2 and 3 and speaks how we can strive to be the church that Jesus is coming back to receive unto Himself.

In preparation to become a finished product one must undergo a process which is designed to build you by way of a series of experiences. It is through these experiences that our identity is ultimately defined. Identity is who God calls and the process is what reveals over the course of time. Process reveals who God called before the foundations of the world. In God ' s process of spiritual development we will face the unexpected. But it is during these times that tenacity is developed. This persistency reinforces and brands the product in production. Henceforth, at the appointed time the product is ready for release. The process is designed to pull out the essences of your individuality specifically carved by the hand of God. We are God ' s product and are fashioned as such to withstand the intensity of the turns the process takes us through.

The New Christianity is about concerted efforts seeking to infiltrate the gospel of Jesus Christ and turn it into a changeable document based on desired lifestyle. This infiltration is not limited to just sins of the flesh; it includes the highest levels of the church, government, civic groups, and gays and lesbians, all forcing their influence into the ship of the church. They have found a place of comfort, but is Jesus at the helm?

Let me ask you, have you ever said to yourself, "I would love to travel and see the rest of the world," or "I would love to have a more fulfilling and successful life?" After which you suddenly snapped back to reality and said-"Oh well." Why do we say "oh well" and dismiss the many desires we have, never attempting to obtain them? Do we feel those things are for someone else? An elite group of people, or someone with an IQ off the charts? Statics show, 67 percent of the population has a general idea of what they want, but only about 10 percent of the population go after their dreams . Why do we see what we want, but most never reach out to grab it-relationships, career changes, weight loss and many other things we long to have or do? Also answer this, why do we continue to go to a job we hate? I know-we need money to pay the bills, but everybody needs money, even the successful ones in life. Yet many have broken through the "invisible barrier" some believe, separates the winners from the losers. Also, is it possible many of us are victims of our past? I know for some, those are unsettling questions, but it's not a coincidence why many are not pursuing their dreams, but is a result of what I call "The Passion Thieves!" Most of us are unaware of the many subtle passion thieves that steal our momentum in life. Before you sail to the stars, you must first discover what's been dismantling your drive! If your life is mediocre and you would like to jump start your world, then this book will give you the edge you need. In "Discovering the Passion Thieves of Success and Unleashing the Real you," I've combined a gentle mixture of life coaching, personal counseling, and years of practical experience to enhance your life in multiple areas, by exposing the many passion thieves around you. Learn: How perceptions affect us How your childhood may have affected you The effects of Fear on your road to success The seventeen passion thieves on your road to success The passion thieves of marriage The passion thieves of the blended family The role of the reticular activator in your life Discover what's been stealing your drive to live your dreams, and start running the race of life to win!

Many Christians believe and have been taught that the bride of Christ is the church, and this presupposition is widely held by scholars, ministers, and laity alike as though it were a biblical precept. Yet this view actually owes its origins to pagan heresy and mysticism that infiltrated the church over the centuries. In fact, the scriptures tell us who Jesus will marry and it is neither the Christian church nor Israel. Shekinah Unveiled examines and irrevocably dismantles the ages-old traditions that maintain that the church is the bride of Christ and that Israel was Yahweh's wife. Author and theologian John Whitman proves, from scripture, who the true bride of Christ and the wives of Yahweh are, and he explains why it matters to know the identity of the bride of Christ. Knowledge of the true identity of the bride of Christ affects multiple core doctrines of faith: the imago Dei, marriage, sexuality and the family, sin, Christology, ecclesiology, eschatology, judgment, bridal theology, and theology proper. And because the latter is itself the bedrock upon which not only systematic theology but each of these other attendant doctrines are founded, the very heart of Christianity is affected by knowing the identity of Christ's bride.

Be Prepared Robert C. Courson Jr. has a folksy way of warning people that life is brief: " You may tie your shoes this morning, but the undertaker could untie them tonight. " In other words, he said, " We have no promise for tomorrow. " —the Danville, Ill. Commercial-News, by staff writer Mary Wicoff Robert C. Courson Jr., ThD, senior pastor of the First Church of God in Mitchell, Indiana, is the author of a new book, The Terminal Generation—The Apocalyptic Words of Christ for Such a Time as This. The book has climbed to the top of the Amazon charts for Christian Books and Bibles, Bible Study and Reference as well as Kindle eBooks. —the Bedford, Ind. Times-Mail, June 6, 2014 " Be Prepared and Don ' t Be Left Behind " This book is an instruction manual covering the things to come in our lifetime and also a survival manual of protection and preparation. Be prepared and don ' t be left behind. Jesus Christ is coming soon—suddenly and silently—to " rapture " his church; the Antichrist will ascend to dominate world power, and the wrath of God will be unleashed upon sinful man during the tribulation period. America and the world as we know it are going to change drastically, according to the unveiling and fulfillment of Bible prophecy in our terminal generation.

" ...after much prayer and meditation, God spoke to me. " I combed through scriptures, reading about the church and more about Jesus and His relationship with his disciples, especially focusing on Peter and his bond with the church. What was its purpose? Why couldn't the thoughts of the church, the Body of Christ, the pure meaning of its intent be left alone? My brothers and sisters, after countless days of tumultuous soul searching and restless nights, God has revealed to me that the transformation begins with the acceptance of His Son. However, at times we are alienated and an enemy of Christ, destitute by the wicked works of our minds. Conversely, through his sacrificial death, He has reconciled us, to present us " holy, unblameable and unproveable " to himself. When you journey through the pages of this book, allow the process to continue. Jesus works from the inside out. The mind is the center for change. As you continue to walk in Christ, " Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus " . Let this book be the compass that guides you back on course so that you too, can become the church that Christ intended you to be!

" One Sunday At The Altar " is a book about transformation and the grace of God. It shows a lifetime of choices, compromises and challenges that shape the life of a sinful man into a minister of the gospel. This is the true story of one man ' s journey through the process it takes to walk in the purpose of God. You will laugh and you will cry. Hopefully, it will convince you that God can change anybody and a yielded soul will always do the will of God.
