Sixteen years have passed since we last visited Karma Alonso-Walker. After Money's conviction for attempted murder of their son, Karma turned back to her first love of track and field. Newfound fame, fortune and love has given her a fresh outlook on life, but no matter how hard she tries to forget the past, it always finds a way to remind her of her indiscretions. And when Money is released from prison, Karma's world is turned upside down once again, forcing her to come to face to face with the beast that has burdened her for more than half a decade.

Life happens to all of us. Sometimes life is sweet and fair and perfect. Most of the time life is tough. It grabs you around the ankles and shakes you like a snow globe full of kooky people and strange events. This is one description of what life is like living in a snow globe of blizzard proportions where up is down, normal is a fantasy, and karma fuels the chaos that pops up in the most unexpected places. This is the reality we were never told to expect, but that most of us find ourselves trying to shovel our way out of.

Za'Kai and Takari have what it takes to be relationship goals in Miami. It's almost hard to believe that the two of them haven't known each other their whole lives because they seem to just click. They're compatible, but the question is, will it work? This is a woman walked straight out of a marriage and jumped into something very serious with Za'Kai. Za'Kal, on the other hand, hasn't been in a serious relationship with anyone in years, so he wants this relationship to work with Takari more than anything, but how much is he willing to sacrifice for it? These two lovers already have kids of their own and somewhat of a life outside of each other, so are they willing to take on another load, which is their undying commitment to each other? In the final installment of Love Me, find out if Za'Kai and Takari can make this love thing be the magical ending that they both so rightfully deserve.

Set in ancient Japan, Natsuhiko Kyogoku's chilling series interweaves tales of karma and retribution with supernatural tricksters and spirits. In The Flying Heads, when local authorities refuse to act, the Mendicant steps in to help the residents of a small Izu town being terrorized by a serial rapist. An outlaw, a crime boss, a wandering ronin, and a corrupt official are caught in a web of retribution resonating with echoes of an ancient legend, but not everything is as it seems.

In part 3 of the dramatic Never Again, No More Series, Trinity, LaMeka, Lucinda, and Charice are back with brand new drama. Although they seem to have escaped their pasts, they find out saying never again, no more is easier said than done. Trinity has moved on with her first love, Terrence, and has seemingly left all her troubles behind. However, when you have a past named Pooch, it can and will come back with a vengeance. After LaMeka barely escaped the death grip Tony had on her, her life has truly come full circle. However, she fears her sordid past is not distant enough to fully embrace her new lease on life—and then again, neither is Tony. Weathering storms is one battle that Lucinda is used to, but when she falls in love with Aldris, those stormy days are a thing of her past. That is until Aldris's past delivers them a shocking surprise. She'll find out weathering storm isn't the problem; it's surviving it. Charice and Ryan have moved on . . . together. It is a marriage of pure love and pure bliss, until Lincoln shows up, determined to prove that it is a marriage of pure lies. Slowly but surely, these ladies' past trials begin to stir up trouble in their current situations. The karma is brewing, and new hot tea is prepared to be served by way of former lovers, love children, and deeply rooted secrets. What will happen when the women and men are forced to face the drama they've stirred?
