In Billy's Midnight Express book, he does not suffer the mental hardship and physical abuse as shown in the movie.

In contrast, the book talks more about the filthy conditions at the prison, not Billy's decaying health, nor any issues with the people of Turkey.

Midnight Express by Billy Hayes - Goodreads

"Midnight Express" has a very adult theme and some scenes are shocking to watch, with the nasty prison guard taking out horrific acts of violence on the convicted. It's a strong prison drama, intelligently made. If you like films like "The Shawshank Redemption" about escaping from prisons, then you are sure to like this. This is a true story though, so the main bulk of events actually took ...
