This Level One reader opens with a bird saying "moo" instead of "tweet." Moo Bird is clearly different from the other birds in his nest. He feels like he doesn't belong. So Moo Bird goes off in search of where he DOES belong. Will Cow want to be his friend? At last, Moo Bird finds a friend.... Who will it be?

An easy reader with picture clue riddles and search-and-find challenges in which the reader is asked to find various animals in the photographs.

Simple text paired with large, toothy dog grins make this book a surefire hit with beginning readers! This Level 1 Reader uses funny dogs to introduce opposite words. There's a dirty dog and a clean dog, a mean dog and a nice dog, and many more! Plus, there's an extremely long dog who keeps popping into the story. The long dog adds humor to the book, and kids will be anxious to turn the pages all the way to the end! Young readers will enjoy Eric Seltzer's bright illustrations and rhythmic, easy-to-read text.

Easy-to-read text follows young Gus on his first, somewhat frightening, campout.

Invites the reader to solve the riddle of why Silly Milly likes certain things and dislikes others.

Simple text and colorful cut-paper illustrations combine in a celebration of the beauty and usefulness of water that depicts such objects as a rainy day, steam cooking, and ice cubes. Original.

Rhyming text invites readers to find objects hidden within the pictures.

True account of the training and early work experiences of the German shepherd which became the first seeing eye dog in America.

Rhyming text invites the reader to find hidden objects in the pictures.

Animals that live at the Earth's poles introduce themselves using rhyming text.
