History. Chipping Barnet began as a settlement around a fork in the road running north out of London (where the High Street meets Wood Street today). Baernet is thought to mean a place cleared by burning. Arkley and Hadley, to the west and north, may have included settlements that predate Chipping Barnet as they appear in a rare boundary description from 1005.

Christians put their trust in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. They believe that his story, told in four separate accounts called the gospels, and also in contemporary Jewish and Greek writings, is also their own story. They believe he is the vital connection between God who created the world, and God restoring the world to his original vision of love.
