Weapons of Mass Persuasion: The First World War in Posters

We need to put down the books, stop arguing, and put out the fire. Being right is one thing. Being persuasive is another. Facts, logic and solid argument are not enough. Weapons of Mass Persuasion will show you how people form their opinions and how to hack that process; how their current "knowledge" will affect how they hear what you're saying – and what you can do about it; how to avoid zero-sum arguments where the other guy has to lose for you to win and replace them with an ...
